

WHAT'S FREE IN BARCELONA

The following museums have free admission during certain hours, days of the week, dates of the year.

Picasso Museum 1st Sunday of each month, 10:00 am - 8:00 pm February 10 May 18 (International Museums Day) September 24 (Festival of La Mercè, Barcelona's patron saint)	National Museum of Catalan Art (MNAC) 1st Sunday of each month, 10:00 am - 2:30 pm May 18, September 11, September 24
Museu Marítim (Maritime Museum) Sundays after 3:00 pm May 18, September 24	Museu d'Història de Catalunya 1st Sunday of every month, 10:00 am - 2:30 pm
Caixa Forum This work of Puig I Cadafalch is always free! (Has some very good special exhibits) Open daily 10:00 am - 8:00 pm	Monestir de Pedralbes 1st Sunday of each month October - May 10:00 am - 2:00 pm June - September 10:00 am - 5:00 pm
Antoni Tàpies Foundation 18 May, September 24	Museo de Ceràmica and Museu de les Arts Decoratives at Palau Reial de Pedralbes 1st Sunday of each month, 10:00 am - 3:00 pm

The following public parks, churches and other sights are always free

Gaudi's Parc Güell	The grounds of Gaudi's Hospital de Sant Pau	Antic Hospital de la Santa Creu and Chapel
Boquería Market	A stroll down the always lively and colorful Las Ramblas	Ciudadella Park
Parc de l'Espanya Industrial	Barceloneta Beaches	Port Olímpic
Gardens of Joan Bross on Montjuïc	Castle of Montjuïc	Evening Sound and Light Show-Magic Fountain
la Seu Cathedral (Free except from 1:00-5:00 pm)	Basilica de Santa María del Mar	Gothic Santa María del Pi
Guided tours on the 2 nd and 4 th weekend of each month at the Palau de la Generalitat	Sunday noon mass at the Sant Paul del Camp Monastery	Sunday English tours (11:00 am) of the Ajuntament (City Hall)